“Managing a short term rental is anything but passive. The level of excellence required of a host to bring in maximum revenue for your property takes consistent time, attention, energy, and skill. Partnering with Stay Cincinnati ensures your valuable time and freedom is protected, while your asset performs at it's highest and best.” -Kortni Cozzens

MY BACKGROUND

My interest in real estate started as a small child, but I wasn't able to realize it as a true passion until I left my job after five years in another field to work full time for an RE investor in the fall of 2021. Since then, I've been immersed in all things REI, getting a full blown education along the way. I realized quickly that sourcing, furnishing, and operating short term rentals was not only my favorite part but also something that came so naturally to me, it didn't feel like work at all.

important tip

At a time in the market when cash flow is nearly impossible to find, and every market seems saturated with short term rentals, it is vital to add PIZZAZZ to your listing to outshine the competition.

I purchased my first investment property (besides our previous live-in flips) in October 2022. A historic, three story home (or five story if you count the basement and sub-basement) in Prospect Hill, built in 1805. It had been recently renovated and had a fantastic view of the city skyline from the hillside, but it needed a way to stand out from the other over one- thousand listings in the Cincinnati area. We added a moody Speakeasy to the stone and brick basement, and it was the perfect touch. Nine months later we were under contract with our second STR, another, larger, three-story home in Walnut Hills. Our goal was appreciation, realizing that the area was less desirable than our first's, but predicting that not to be the case in a few years. In order to find success and cashflow, we knew we needed over-the-top amenities and design. We transformed the weedy, mosquito infested, and awkward back yard to the ultimate entertainment spot in only a few weeks. At the Oasis, guests can spend their time soaking in the seven-person hot tub, watch the Bengals at the outdoor bar, spend their evening gathered around a fire, or challenge their friends to a tournament of foosball, air hockey, or ping pong or darts. To my surprise and great satisfaction, this property has brought in 130% of the ANNUAL projected revenue, in just Q1 of 2024, and is on track to DOUBLE its projected revenue-- because of the PIZZAZZ.

Aside from my own properties, I have acquired, established, and managed multiple other short term rentals in Cleveland and Cincinnati. I currently manage two additional listings right in the middle of the action near Main Street in OTR.

Over the past few years, I have hosted thousands of guests, solved countless problems, and done hundreds of hospitable deeds. My homes have been the background of over a million memories. Okay, the last one is just a guestimate-- but my heart is constantly warmed knowing the work I do in the background brings families and friends together, and when they think back to their time in Cincinnati, they think back to my homes. I'd love to provide your guests the same hospitality, and allow your investment to be truly passive for you.

Thank you!

Let's do it! I'd love to partner with you.

"Absolutely amazing experience. Great location, beautiful house, impeccably maintained. The backyard was such a treat, we spent most of our time there. Our group has been at many Airbnbs, and this by far was the best. Kortni was also exceptional and very attentive, responsive, and helpful. Do not hesitate to rent this "Oasis," you will not be disappointed." - Kevin,

"KORTNI WAS AWESOME FROM DAY ONE. SHE REALLY WENT OUT OF HER WAY FOR US. SHE WAS UNDERSTANDING, PATIENT, KIND, FLEXIBLE- I COULD GO ON FOR DAYS. THIS OR ANY OF HER OTHER PROPERTIES ARE DEFINITELY WHERE YOU WANT TO STAY. WHEN I FOUND ZIPLOCK BAGGIES, I KNEW SHE REALLY UNDERSTOOD WHAT IT MEANT TO OWN A B&B." -JULIE,, OCTOBER 2023
